The Home...

An excellent three bedroom semi-detached mews town house located within Withylands View, a gated development comprising of just eight properties constructed in 2003, conveniently located just off the High Street in the village of Ardingly. The home enjoys a fabulous position to the rear of the development, sitting adjacent to beautiful countryside meaning you can simply walk in to and start enjoying the quintessential English village lifestyle.

The accommodation is spread over three floors with the ground floor incorporating a kitchen with a range of integrated appliances and quite superb through sitting/dining room which is divided by a set of folding doors. This impressive room extends to over 23ft has been created as a result of an impressive extension, with bi-fold doors opening to provide "inside-outside" living during the summer months.

On the first floor is a double bedroom with beautiful rural views, second double bedroom and a family bathroom.

On the second floor is the exceptional master bedroom suite with glorious views across open countryside to the rear and the South Downs to the front. There is also a dressing area and en suite shower room and being on the top floor means there is privacy and seclusion from the rest of the house.

Step Outside...

To the rear is a low maintenance, private garden with artificial lawn and a plethora of pretty plants & shrubs . The property benefits from parking adjacent to the house and access to half of the double car barn. Neatly tucked away in the corner of the garden is a summerhouse that is perfect for those who work from home.

Out & About...

Ardingly is one of the premier villages that surround Haywards Heath. The reputable St Peters C of E primary school is currently rated by Ofsted as 'good', there are two good pubs (Ardingly Inn and Gardeners Arms), a post office/village store and the well-known Fellows Bakery. The village is surrounded by some of the best countryside in West Sussex, ideal for dog walking. The village is also home to Ardingly College, The Royal Botanical Gardens at Wakehurst Place and the South of England Showground - a vibrant 150-acre estate that hosts a range of concerts and events throughout the year, including the famous 'South of England Show'. The reservoir offers good walking, sailing, canoeing, windsurfing and fishing. Although Ardingly has an array of local shops whilst more comprehensive facilities including a mainline station with services to Victoria and London Bridge (in approx 47 mins) can be found approximately 4 miles distant in Haywards Heath.
